

TWO PERFECT DAYS IN

Stockholm

Day 1

- Breakfast
 - Grab a kaffee along with a delicious Kanelbulle or the famous cinnamon buns to power up for a busy day ahead.
- Free Tour Stockholm
 - These usually start before noon and let you cover a decent amount of ground. With only one day, this is your best bet to see the most in a short amount of time.
 - If you cannot catch the tour, start your day exploring Gamla Stan instead. The old town is full of cobblestone streets, cute restaurants, shops and also a lot of history!
- Lunch
 - You need to try meatballs with some lingonberries for lunch. Add pickled herring to the table as well for a really traditional experience. Find a good local place and indulge in some Swedish delicacies.
- Djurgården
 - There is a ton of activities on the island for almost any interest. Visiting Vasa museum which houses the big ship is one of the most popular activities there. Other notable attractions are Nordic, Viking and Abba Museum. Skansen, an open-air activity more geared toward the younger crowd is also located there.
- Dinner
 - Maybe you want more meatballs or some delicious warm soup for dinner? Or the famous Jansson's Temptation or a Raggmunk? Pick a nice place depending on your budget and end your stay with a fancy meal of some traditional Swedish dishes.
- Trädgården
 - Visiting in the summer, you must visit this place. It is an outdoor club/mini festival. Unfortunately, prepare to wait in a queue for a bit but it will totally worth seeing.

Day 2

- Breakfast
 - You simply need more Kanelbulles. Maybe it is not the most Swedish thing to eat for breakfast but how can you resist this little piece of heaven.
- Drottningholm Palace
 - Take the metro over to this nearby attraction. It is worth seeing for its beauty and the gardens inspired by Versailles. There are tours offered inside which give you a nice overview of its history
- Food Tour
 - This is a very awesome option for Stockholm. It takes about 3 hours and not only do you get to sample traditional bites but also learn about their origins. The food tour also includes some additional history and fun facts about the city. Prepare to walk around a lot!
 - If you're looking for a more adventurous afternoon, another unique option is the kayaking tour around the city!
- Sunset walk along Strandvägen Boulevard
 - Stockholm days are really long in the summer and really short in the winter. If you are visiting during the summer months, take a stroll along the boulevard for some people watching. Grab a drink and dinner at an open-air restaurant.
