

3 Days in Lisbon

Day 1 - Welcome to Lisbon

- Walking Tour or the Following Route:
 - See my post for recommendations/opinions on walking tours
 - Otherwise, venture off on your own and follow this route:
 - Praça do Comércio: Start your walk at the main square of the city
 - The Arco (Arc) of Rua Augusta: You can climb to the top for panoramic views
 - Rua Augusta: A touristy shopping pedestrian street
 - Santa Justa Lift: Famous elevator, walk up instead to the free terrace next to it
 - Convento do Carmo: Famous convent that stood after the famous earthquake
 - Rossio Square: Another beautiful town square
 - A Ginjinha: A famous cherry liquor spot
- Evening Near Waterfront
 - Catch the sunset on the waterfront near Cais do Sodré
 - Time Out Market: Awesome food market with tons of interesting vendors
 - Pink Street: Street with bars and restaurants, gets lively at night

Day 2 - Alfama & Nightlife

- Morning Exploring Alfama Neighborhood
 - You can start the walk in either direction, lots of hills!
 - Lisbon Cathedral or Sé Cathedral: Beautiful cathedral, catch sight of Tram 28 passing by
 - Miradouro Sta. Luzia and Miradouro Portas do Sol: Great panoramic views of the city
 - Castelo de St. Jorge: Very old castle, has a camera obscura
 - Miradouro da Graça: Another viewpoint with great views of Lisbon
 - Pantheon: Church and burial site
 - Feira da Ladra: Flea market on Tuesdays and Saturdays
 - Get lost in Alfama: Walk toward the direction of Museu do Fado (and visit too if you're interested in its history) but don't take the main street route, instead get lost
 - Azulejos Museum: Portuguese tile museum, a beautiful place
- A Little Nightlife
 - LxFactory: Hipster art, restaurant, bar and shop industrial complex
 - Bairro Alto: The nightlife neighborhood

Day 3 - Belem, Beach and Fado

- Morning in Belem Neighborhood
 - Pastéis de Belem: Birthplace of the Pastel de Nata
 - Jerónimos Monastery: A stunning monastery, admire from outside or enter for a tour
 - Padrão dos Descobrimentos: A monument dedicated to explorers
 - Belem Tower: Famous tower on the water, can enter inside
 - Monument to the Overseas Combatants: A beautiful memorial
- Cascais
 - Cascais Beach and town: Take a 30 min train from Alges near Belem to this beach town
 - Boca do Inferno: A cliff with opening to the sea in Cascais
- Fado
 - A show and dinner can be found at Clube de Fado. Other dinner shows take place at Fado ao Carmo and O Faia. More laid-back but still very popular shows happen at Tasca do Chico or Povo.
